McCartney, the royal vizier, commander of the faithful, has sent word to all the sons of Allah that the caravan is now forming for the first great pilgrimage across the hot sands of the desert.

The delegates will convene at 7:30 p. m. sharp. A business meeting will be held at Salt Lake City immediately before the departure of a special car for Ogden over the Bamberger line.

The caravan will arrive at Ogden at 6:15. The grand parade will form at 6:30, including votaries, tyros and animals, real camels and a royal Bengal tiger.

HIGH SCHOOL READY FOR FOOTBALL CONTEST

A great football rally was held at the Ogden High school today and enough enthusiasm was created, seemingly, to carry the Orange and Black football team to several victories. According to some of the "co-eds," this demonstration was only a small sample of the volume of rooting that will be done by the local students at Glenwood tomorrow, when the Tigers will meet the Davis county High school eleven for the state high school championship.

Since the disastrous game at Kaysville last week, which was a cause of their having to risk the state pennant tomorrow, the Tigers have taken on a reversal of form in the right direction and are determined to retrieve the reputation they lost to the Corn-Tossers. Glasmann and Mohler and the rest of the regulars will be on the job from the opening kickoff tomorrow and the local student fans say the team must win and "that's all there is to it."

From Kaysville comes the news that the Corn-Tossers will bring up a big bunch of fans to oppose the noise-making of the Tiger adherents and that the team has no idea in mind but to win the game.

The contest will begin at 2:30 o'clock and the lineup will be as follows:

Ogden	Davis County
Conroy	Adams
Mohler	Stringham
Bagley	Bone
Rick	Woolley
Fox	Flint
Edwin	Reeves
Glasmann	Whitesides
Falck	Simpson
Dee	Swan
Kingsford	Marshall

Tommy Fitzpatrick has been chosen to act as referee. A. A. Blazer, as umpire and Dr. Kanzler of Salt Lake, as head linesman.

SURPRISE PARTY.
The home of Mrs. Olive A. Parry was invaded by a surprise party, Monday evening, November 20th. The occasion being the fiftieth anniversary of her marriage to the late Joseph Parry.

The surprise was complete, as the invaders entered the house during Mrs. Parry's temporary absence at her daughter's home next door. The time was spent in a continual round of pleasure and good cheer.

The Misses Gwendolyn and Melba Nelson furnished the guests with several piano selections; Mr. Walter N. Farr's Hawaiian songs were admirably rendered and Mrs. Minerva P. Shaw's violin solos and music for an old time quadrille, which was thoroughly enjoyed by the participants, and all who were present.

After tempting refreshments were served, Mr. John Barker in a few choice words congratulated Mrs. Parry on her splendid record. He then read the following:

The fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mrs. Olive A. Parry, Ogden, Utah, Nov. 20, 1916.

This golden anniversary, for a heart of gold,

Hark to the echo of the voices round you:

Sister and friend in one, sweet nature roled.

We find you true as we have ever found you.

Take then upon this perfect day of bliss,

This happy surprise; may you and yours out-live it.

Its greatest value to your friends is this:

That they have lived to know you and to give it.

This was followed by reminiscence talks and words of good cheer by Mrs. Minerva P. Shaw, Mrs. Vincie R. Barker, Mr. Walter Parry, Mr. Joseph Harbertson and others. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. James J. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Harbertson, James R. Beus, Mrs. Walter Parry, Mr. and Mrs. Walter N. Farr, Mr. and Mrs. Merlin J. Stone, Mrs. Minerva P. Shaw, Mrs. Julia E. Parry, Mr. Elias Parry, Mrs. Sylvia Alvord, Miss Mabel Alvord, Mrs. John Parry, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parry, Mrs. Julia Ballenger, Miss Natalia Johansen.

CONTRASTS GIVEN TO MARE ISLAND

Two Destroyers to Be Built in California Navy Yard for U. S. Government.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Mare Island navy yard, California, was today awarded contracts for two destroyers of the 20 authorized by congress.

The destroyers will be built within 20 months. Explaining the award, Secretary Daniels said it was given to the Mare Island navy yard because private bids, exclusive of those already granted for the 18 other vessels, were so high that they left too small a margin to make the construction practicable under the congressional authorization.

"The bid of the Crampton company for two destroyers," the secretary said, "was $1,195,000 each, which was only $5,000 less than the appropriation and left so small a margin for changes as practically to make it impossible to accept their bid."

The Mare Island yard bid $968,105 each.

NO CHANGE IN THE OFFICIAL COUNT

Sacramento, Cal., Nov. 24.—Official tabulation of election returns from Alameda county was made today in the office of the secretary of state and now but two counties remain to be heard from to complete the canvass. Returns from San Diego county are on their way to the capitol. The vote of San Francisco county was to be forwarded late today. No further errors in the county have been discovered, it was declared.

Unless discrepancies of a serious nature are found, it is probable there will be no delay in final certification of the vote of the state.
